FORMER FOUR-DIVISION WORLD CHAMPION BATTLES
ARON MARTINEZ ON PREMIER BOXING CHAMPIONS ON NBC
SATURDAY, JUNE 6 AT STUBHUB CENTER

GILROY, CA (May 26, 2015) - While entering the final days of training camp, four-division world champion, Robert "The Ghost" Guerrero (32-3-1, 18 KOs), gives his thoughts on his upcoming PBC on NBC main-event attraction against Aron Martinez. The 10-round bout will take place at StubHub Center in Carson, Calif., June 6, 2015 and will air live on NBC starting at 3:00 p.m. ET/12:00 p.m. PT.

On fighting in the PBC on NBC main-event:

"First I really want to thank Al Haymon for bringing boxing back to the fans. This is another wonderful opportunity where fans from all walks of life can see me fight on NBC for free. PBC on NBC has taken boxing back to its glory days and I'm honored to be headlining my second show. Everyone knows I come to fight and you can expect the same when I step in the ring with Martinez.

On staying active

"When a fighter is constantly staying busy, it makes a world of difference. My timing is down, my body is used to the rigorous training. When I'm on the grind, I perform at a much higher level. This will be the first time I've had back to back fights in a very long time. Everyone watching this fight will see the difference in my fighting style.

On fighting at the StubHub Center

"The StubHub Center is probably my favorite venue to fight in. The fans are incredible. Everyone has a great seat and you can feel the energy from the crowd while you're fighting. It's like there right on top of you. For some reason the StubHub Center brings out the warrior spirit in everyone. It's a great place to fight!"

On training camp...

"Training camp has been going great. Like I mentioned before, when you stay active, everything flows a lot smoother. I've taken my sparring sessions to a new level. I'm quicker on my feet and my timing is spot on. My dad Ruben who trains me, is really happy with my progress. Everything has come together really nice. It's time to go to war!"
