LOS ANGELES, CA (July 13, 2017) "THE HAWAIIAN PUNCH", BRIAN VILORIA (37-5-0, 22 KO's) has been added to the outstanding "SUPERFLY" event set for Saturday, September 9 at The StubHub Center in Carson, California it was announced today by TOM LOEFFLER, Managing Director of K2 PROMOTIONS.

A four-time champion in two weight divisions, Viloría's eight round super flyweight fight will highlight the off-TV undercard portion of the event with an opponent to be announced shortly.

"I'm very excited to be on this important card, said Viloría. "I haven't missed a day of roadwork, and I've been putting in the hours at the Wild Card so that I can give my hometown fans in Los Angeles what they always expect of me -- my very best. I'm refreshed and strong, and nothing's going to stand in my way of winning another world title."

Continued his longtime manager GARY GITTLESOHN, "The little giants of boxing are finally getting the showcase they deserve. For my money, these weight classes are the most talent-laden in boxing, and this card is presenting the very cream of the crop. Brian has distinguished himself as one of the most explosive and exciting fighters in the world. He has a lot to prove on this card, and I've never seen him more eager to impress. Personally, I can't wait."

Viloría is returning to battle following an eight round unanimous decision victory over Ruben Montoya on March 2, 2017 in Tokyo, Japan.

On October 17, 2015, Viloría valiantly challenged then WBC Flyweight World Champion ROMAN "CHOCOLATITO" GONZALEZ at Madison Square Garden and on HBO Pay-Per-View, losing a very hard fought battle.

"We're honored to add longtime fan favorite Brian Viloría to this tremendous card," said Loeffler. "For many years he's been one of the very best fighters in the junior flyweight and flyweight divisions and those in attendance on fight night will see one of the true warriors in boxing."
