WHAT:

Following a pair of star-studded Ring Magazine shows at London's Tottenham Stadium and New York's Times Square (more than 116 billion combined social-media impressions) comes the third championship boxing event from the 103-year-old Bible of Boxing.

Ring Magazine III on July 12 in New York City (at a special, to be announced venue) is headlined by New York's Edgar Berlanga (No. 9 in The Ring's ratings) vs. Hamzah Sheeraz (No. 3 at 160 pounds) in a super middleweight fight.

Shakur Stevenson (No. 4) defends his WBC lightweight title vs. William Zepeda (No. 5) in the second of two main events on DAZN, available exclusively on the platform worldwide.

The Ring was founded in 1922 and remains the premier destination for boxing news, analysis and opinion. And now, with this third installment of live fights, The Ring is also home to boxing's marquee fights and top stars.

DAZN is the home of boxing worldwide and since 2018 has been the streaming service destination for fight fans. The first two Ring Magazine shows were also streamed by network partner DAZN.
