Rising Mexican star and Interim WBC Middleweight Champion Jesús “Mono” Ramos Jr. will hold a media workout in his hometown of Casa Grande, Arizona as he nears his matchup against unbeaten mandatory challenger Meirim Nursultanov that serves as the co-main event streaming live on DAZN and presented by Premier Boxing Champions on Saturday, September 19 from Pechanga Arena in San Diego, California.

The event will also feature an appearance from Casa Grande Mayor Lisa Navarro Fitzgibbons. Ramos, Jr., received the Key to the City from Mayor Fitzgibbons in March, and was honored with the Hometown Legacy Award in recognition of his dedication to shaping the character and future of the city.

His father and trainer, Jesus Ramos, Sr., was also recognized for his significant contributions to Casa Grande recently as Congressman Juan Ciscomani presented him with the American Dream Inspirational Educator Supporter award earlier this month.

The Ramos family opened the Ramos Boxing Academy in 2022 and in an effort to help revitalize the downtown area, the family also took over the Paramount Theatre across the street from their gym last year. The Ramos family have hosted a wide array of community events in the historic venue and have a Casa Grande’s Got Talent showcase coming up later this month.
