LOS ANGELES – April 20, 2024 - Combat sports superstars Nate Diaz and Jorge “Gamebred” Masvidal concluded “THE BADDEST TOUR” Friday night with an event in Los Angeles before they meet in the ring on Saturday, June 1 headlining “LAST MAN STANDING” presented by Fanmio PPV from The Kia Forum in Los Angeles.

Two of sports and entertainment’s biggest personalities, Diaz and Masvidal will square off in a 10-round professional boxing light heavyweight showdown marking the first time two true MMA stars will go toe-to-toe in a boxing ring. Friday’s event was the fourth and final stop on their press tour that also saw them hold events in Las Vegas, New York and Miami.

Diaz vs. Masvidal headlines a PPV available for purchase at Fanmio.com/PPV and Fanmio.com/DiazVsMasvidal. Fanmio will present “LAST MAN STANDING” in association with Diaz’s Real Fight Inc. and Masvidal’s Gamebred Boxing Promotions.

Tickets for the live event, priced starting at $50 (plus applicable taxes and fees), are on sale now through Ticketmaster.com.

After squaring off with Masvidal at three previous press tour stops, Diaz declared himself through with talking and exited the stage before their ceremonial face off. Here is what the fighters had to say Friday before Diaz’s exit from the NOVO at L.A. Live:

NATE DIAZ

“It was a fun tour going all over the U.S.A., but I’m done with all this talking. Square off with yourself.”

JORGE MASVIDAL

“I expect to silence all his fans when I’m done with my work on fight day.

“It’s gonna be two dogs in the ring. Neither of us are backing down. I know it’s gonna take everything I’ve got to take him down and shut everyone up.

“We already fought and he knows what I bring. I bring speed and power, and I’m not a nice guy. I’m gonna bring the heat like always.”
